Section - A (Reading)   (Marks : 14)

Read the following passage carefully and on the basis of your reading, answer the questions given below it :

Passage - 1

Mass copying in the examinations has reduced education to a joke. The lengthy courses of study and the system of annual examinations are the root causes of it. How is it possible for any human being to express honestly within three hours all that he has learnt in full one year? Naturally students are forced to cram certain things and copy others from some sources in the examination hall. Examinations more or less in the form of class tests at the end of a quarter should be held. The result of a student should be determined by his performance round the year. The class teacher should be entrusted with this difficult task. He will have to rise above petty worldly considerations and must be brave and impartial. His role in this connection is very significant.

1. Why has education become a joke?   1

2. Why are students forced to cram and copy?   2

3. How should a student's result be determined?   1

4. What qualities are required of an examiner?   2

    The Editor
    The Times of India
    Udaipur
    Subject : Traffic jams near Chintpurni Temple
    Sir,

    Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the attention of the concerned authorities to the problem of traffic jam near Chintpurni Temple crossing. I am a student of New Age English School. My School bus takes me from the bus stand near my house. It is always on time. On a fortunate day when there is not traffic jam, we children reach school about ten minutes before the school starts. However, more often than not, there is a traffic jam near Chintpurni Temple. There our bus is held up for a very long time. As a result, we reach school 15-20 minutes late.

         Something must be done to avoid this jam. The traffic lights are generally not working and the traffic police is also absent. I request those who are in-charge of the traffic-management to take immediate steps to help the public.
    Yours faithfully
    Vivek

It raised me from sorrow, it saved me from pain;
It fed me, and clad me, again and again.

(b) Bards of power
Had sung their claims, 'The rose can never tower
Like the pale lily with her Juno mien-'
'But is the lily lovelier?' Thus between flower factions rang the strife in psyche's bower.

Ans :
(a) Reference- These lines have been taken from the poem "My Good Right Hand". The poem is composed by Charles Mackay.
Context- All friends and acquaintances of the poet did not come forward to help him in his evil days. The poet had trust in God and on his own hard work. It made him courageous.
Explanation- The poet says that his lost courage came back to him. It did not matter that the poet was still in his evil days. However he was strong in his hands. He was not disappointed. He was cheerful. All this brought him out of his evil days. All his troubles and difficulties left him. His faith in God and in his hard work gave him food and cloth well.

(b) Reference- These lines have been taken from the poem " The Lotus". It has been composed by the poetess Toru Dutt.
Context- This stanza is about the claims or argument made by two factions of flower loving poets. One faction is in favour of the rose flower while the other is in favour of the lily flower.
Explanation- The poets had praised their favourite flower in their poems. Some claimed that the rose could not surpass the lily, which was as beautiful as Juno, as the wife of Jupiter. The other said that the rose was lovelier than the lily. Thus, a dispute went on to exist in the bower of man's mind.

24. Answer any two of the following questions in about 30-40 words : $2 \times 2\frac{1}{2} = 5$

(c) How are people restrained by their certitude?   (Risks)

Ans :

(a) The poet says that whatever happens, there is a friend who will help him and make him happy. The friend is God and the hard work to be done by the poet himself.

(b) Cupid could not immediately decide the colour of the desired flower. First he said it should be red like rose. Then he wanted to have a white flower like lily or it should be of both colours.

(c) People avoid to take risks fearing they will fail. This feeling of certainty prevents them from taking risks. They do nothing and keep satisfied. Thus they are restrained by their certitude and become its slave.

25. Answer any one of the following questions in about 80 words : $1 \times 5 = 5$

(a) How does the story unfold the working of the child's psyche?   (The Purple Jar)
(b) Mr. Agnus was a character of humiliation. How?   (High Maharajah)

Ans :
(a) A child is attracted towards everything that looks beautiful and attractive. He or she resists the parents suggestion against it. Rosamond is a child and her psyche is unfolded when she urges her mother to purchase all the beautiful things that she sees in the windows of different shops. She preferred buying a purple jar to a pair of shoes. She needed shoes very much. But when the jar turned out to be a plain white glass jar, she was disappointed. The she started thinking if she would have brought a pair of shoes. Thus, the story unfolds a child's psychology.

(b) Mr. Agnus was a collection of characteristics who was humiliated for his over smartness. His voice, context and gestures never matched. Mr. Agnus was someone who had a frightening voice while he used to smile even in situations which were worrisome. He had his own theories of understanding of everything with no relevance attached to it due to which he was always subjected to humiliation.
